ODJFS Rule of the Month:

5101: 2-7-09

(G) Physical restraint may be used by a caregiver:

- (1) For self protection.
- (2) For protection of the child from self-destructive behavior.
- (3) To protect another person from a foster child.

(H) A foster caregiver shall use only the least restrictive physical restraint necessary to control a situation. A foster caregiver shall not use any device to prevent or restrict movement as punishment or for staff convenience.

(I) The recommending agency shall be notified by the caregiver immediately following the use of physical restraint. A detailed written report of the incident shall be submitted by the caregiver to the recommending agency within twenty-four hours following the use of physical restraint. The recommending agency shall notify the placing agency (if different) immediately upon receipt of the detailed written report from the caregiver. A copy of the written report shall be placed in the foster child's record and in the foster caregiver's record.
